Lynn Kachmarik, Founder and CEO of True Brand Sports LLC

Lynn is the founder and CEO of TRUE BRAND SPORTS LLC, which provides workshops around the world to improve the sport culture at the youth, high school, and collegiate level. Lynn is also the Vice President of Equilibria In Sports. Our purpose at Equilibria Sports is to elevate personal, professional and organizational performance through understanding, embracing and leveraging diversity of thought and behavior. Lynn has developed workshops on exceptional leadership, teamwork, and other topics that resonate with coaches, parents, teachers, students, student-athletes, and corporate executives. Lynn has served as a keynote speaker and presenter at state, national, and international conferences on the need for character-based leadership from administrators, coaches, teachers, parents, and student-athletes. Lynn was recently appointed to the Board of Directors of the International Association of Athletic Administrators and Coaches (IAAAC).

Lynn has 45 years of experience at all sport levels. Lynn was an All-American water polo player and swimmer at Slippery Rock University where she earned her BS and MS Degrees in Physiology and Education. She was a 10-year member of the United States National Water Polo team, and then served on their Executive Committee. Throughout an 18-year career at Bucknell University, Lynn held various coaching positions, including serving two decades as the head coach for the Men’s and Women’s Water Polo and Swim teams. Lynn served as the Athletic Director at Saint Mary’s College for 10 years, and moved on to become the Vice-President and General Manager of the South Bend Silver Hawks Minor League Baseball Team. Lynn served as the National Outreach Director for Play Like a Champion Today. Under her guidance, the program was transformed from a small organization focused on Catholic youth coaches and parents into one of the top educational programs serving public and private elementary and high schools around the world. Lynn has been inducted into 6 Athletic Halls of Fame, including the United States Water Polo Hall of Fame, BucknellUniversity Athletic Hall of Fame, and the Collegiate Water Polo Coach Hall of Fame. She resides in Mishawaka, IN where she and her husband Scott are the The Impact of Technology on our Athletes, Teams and Families.

Essential 2: Shared Vision & Values
Build your organization’s mission, vision, values & strategies to obtain a team compass. Of course your club has a shared Mission but each year does your leadership team and coaches come together to build your “Team Compass”? When you are all on the same page the power in creating and having a shared mission, vision and values drives you forward together.

Essential 4: Trust
If trust is the confidence that we as team members have in each other, then how do you build it in your team? Recognizing the power in vulnerability, trust can give leaders the opportunity to reveal their own insecurities with the understanding that in sharing their hurts can in and of itself strengthen the trust amongst teams. The power in understanding that we all do not build, or break trust the same is empowering.

Positive Coaching Alliance

Directed for leaders, this workshop dives into specific needs and circumstances of your organization and the population it serves. The emphasis of this talk will be on parents' role in building a sports culture that honors the game. We'll touch on what it means to support their child and how they can discuss a game or competition with them after it occurs. There are many moments in sports to acknowledge kid's effort and to teach valuable life lessons.

Recreational Town Hall

Oregon Youth Soccer’s Technical Director Nelson Larson will lead the Recreational Club town hall and present new club resources for recreational club administrators, coaches and parents. Town hall topics will include:

1. Growing the Recreational game in Oregon

   a. Things that affect retention
   b. Why kids play soccer

2. Challenges clubs face

   a. Coaching Education
   b. New administrative requirements
   c. Logistics/fields/referees

3. How Can OYSA offer more support to our clubs

   a. On the Field
   b. Off the field

While we always like to put some structure to the annual recreation town hall the direction and time on topics will be dictated by the needs of the club’s present. This is a great time to hear what other recreational clubs are doing well and find solutions to some road blocks your club may have. If you have additions, you would like to see added to the topics above please email nelson@oregonyouthsoccer.org. We hope to see you there!
